

CERTIFICATE IN MANAGING SOCIAL SECURITY PENSIONS

The Graduate School of Public and Development Management at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, is preparing for the big South African Social Security Debate, in partnership with the International Labour Organisation (ILO). Applicants from Labour, Business, Civil Society and Government are particularly encouraged to attend.

An in-depth training programme in social security and pensions involving an intensive two-week programme in social security and pensions. Wits P&DM will award a Certificate in Social Security and Pensions to students who successfully complete all four modules and required work.

The programme seeks to support the up-coming social security reform debate and consists of four core modules on the theory and practice of social security and pensions, including associated risk / insurance benefits, internationally and domestically.

MODULES INCLUDE: Introduction to Social Security; Comparative systems; Financial and Institutional Frameworks; and Reform in South Africa.

Designed and taught by the Old Mutual Chair of Social Security Systems Administration and Management Studies and experts from and provided by the ILO.

Date:

4 - 8 July and
25 - 29 July 2011

OLD MUTUAL

Application and Enquiries:

Edith Lefine
011 717 3611
edith.lefine@wits.ac.za

P&DM
The Graduate School of Public and Development Management